THE REPORT ON OUTCOMES OF PUBLIC CONSULTATION ON THE PROPOSED 2024/25 BUDGET AND ITS REVENUE RAISING MEASURES AND THE TECHNICAL EVALUATION LED BY NATIONAL TREASURY

1. STRATEGIC THRUST

Good Governance
Financial Sustainability

2. OBJECTIVE

The objective of the report is to provide feedback to the Council on the consideration and analysis of input received through the public participation process on the 2024/25 draft medium term budget and its tariff proposals tabled, share the outcomes of the intergovernmental benchmarking exercise led by the National Treasury; and further seek approval for implementation of the final rates and tariffs proposed with effect 1 July 2024 as contained in Annexures 1 to 24, and the property rates policy and bylaw as contained in Annexure 25.

3. BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSIONS

The Council sitting of 19-20 March 2024 noted the City's Integrated Development Plan ('the IDP'), the draft 2024/25 medium term budget ('the draft Budget') and its tariff proposals in line with the legislative requirements contained in the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 2000 ("MSA"), the Municipal Finance Management Act, 2003, ("MFMA") and the Local Government: Municipal Property Rates Act, 2004, ("MPRA"). This paved a way for the commencement of the public participation process on the City's integrated development plan, the draft budget and its revenue raising measures (tariffs). The aforementioned documents were made public through placement on the City's website following publication of notices on newspapers and the City's website on 22 March 2024. In addition, the City has its own Tariff Determination Policy approved in 2008, and various bylaws. There platforms designated to receive public input were created through electronic submissions in live IDP sessions, the city's website, Regional Offices, designated email addresses, physical meetings per the IDP consultation programme, and tracking print media.

3.1. Legislative framework and compliance

Public consultations on the IDP, the budget and tariff proposals are conducted in accordance with the Municipal Finance Management Act, Act 56 of 2003 (the MFMA), read in conjunction with Chapter 4 of the Municipal Systems Act, Act 32 of 2000 (the MSA), and Chapter 4 of the Municipal Property Rates Act, Act 6 of 2004 (the MPRA). The process is lead by the Office of the Speaker and designed to involve the city's citizens in the administration of the affairs of the municipality. Section 22(a) of the MFMA requires that the Accounting Officer of a municipality, immediately after the annual budget and related documents and proposed tariffs have been tabled in Council, makes documents available to the public for comments or objections.

A notice calling for public comments on the draft budget and proposed tariffs was accordingly published in various newspapers and placed on the City's website. Also, the IDP programme demonstrating venues, regional programmes and mode of engagement was placed on the city's website. Tariff policies and their annexures and SA 14 provide helpful information on the impact of proposed revenue measures on households.

3.1.1. The Municipal Systems Act, 2000.

This legislation, the MSA, requires that the 'substance' of public consultation be conveyed to the ratepayers, and the mechanisms of providing fair public consultation be made available to all ratepayers willing to participate. Presentation for public consultations, media statements and sessions with ratepayers and stakeholders were organised to share the City's developmental agenda in terms of its priorities, and budget and tariff information presented as well as part of resourcing such vision. The engagements as per the IDP programmes were evenly distributed to increase the reach of every kind of Joburg residents, including marginalised areas. The report on the IDP process will deal with input received related to community engagements. In compliance with the MSA, and in addition to the City of Johannesburg website, notices crafted to observe explicitly legislative requirements pertaining to each item were made on Sowetan and Citizen newspapers of 22 March 2024, and explicitly indicated that public comments close on 22 April 2024, a date that was determined noting timeframes imposed by national elections of 29 May 2024. In addition to public submissions made through IDP engagements programme, there were alternative platforms of public consultation included electronic addresses for public comments. The notices directed where the IDP, Budget, and tariff input should be made. When tariff reports are published in full, the intention is for ratepayers to note the proposed changes, engage in content and contextualise proposed changes.

The design of the South African intergovernmental system requires administration to assist with the implementation of programmes of the party in Government. Priorities of the Government of Local Unity guided the 2024/25 Medium Term Budget process. Documents were publicised in clearly designated areas of the City's website, and cross referenced to each other to ensure continuity.

Sufficient period in line with the MPRA, the MSA and the Interpretation of Statutes Act, 1933 was observed, noting developments specific to this year. The city also uses direct engagements and structured stakeholder engagements to encourage active participation. These structured engagements and stakeholder forums were dominantly led by the Legislature, Offices of the Member of Mayoral Committee ("MMC: Finance"); and the Executive Mayor, as additional platforms to share the substance of public consultation and soliciting the views of the public. Through this process, written comments specific to the budget and tariffs that totalled just more than a hundred were received. Added on this figure, is a compilation from ward 74, 80, and 88 (64 persons). A submission that deals with technical input on budget documentation was received from JoburgCan, an arm of OUTA and fully considered. These written submissions add to the input received via comments made in physical meetings, teams' meetings and written submissions for which notes were taken by officials and political leadership. It is further emphasised there was a diverse representation of various stakeholders in IDP forums. An observation is made that besides structured teams meeting, this time there was limited sector input. In addition, there seemed to be fewer comments regarding funding and budget with more focus on IDP issues and clarification of rates issues.

The Budget Office continued to monitor the print media space for further intelligence on these issues. It can be confirmed that due to the competitiveness of the 2024/25 tariff structure, the city did not feature prominently. Comments, public opinions, and views shared or expressed were on the general affordability of tariffs, pressure experienced by consumers, and increasing production input costs.

3.1.2. The Local Government Municipal Property Rates Act, 2004.

The MPRA is more prescriptive both in the format of the submissions to be made in writing and the period of public consultations. While the general tariff development and the finalisation of the rating framework processes are undertaken in parallel with budget consultation, there is an observation of issues specific in each framework. The MPRA further indicates that tariffs are levied for a full municipal financial year. Property rating and its tariff development process is dealt with through an appended report (Annexure 25). And resolutions are specific and itemised as part of the recommendations to be approved by Council.

3.1.3 The Municipal Finance Management Act, 2003.

The MFMA requirements were satisfied by making available to the public the draft budget and its supporting tariff documents and making use of various platforms practical for consultation. There is a legislative requirement that tariffs be implemented at least 30 days following approval by the Council. The Council by noting the draft budget in the March 2024 sitting was observing the requirements that the budget be tabled at least 90 days before the start of a municipal financial year. This process included recognising the submission of the budgets by the municipal entities.

GROUP FINANCE3.2. Analysis of public comments

On the general participation of the public in the process, the frequency of responses to issues, and representativeness of the responses are first characteristics of investigating representativity of the population. Qualitative responses further enrich the discussions by providing dimensions from the subject's point of view including trade-offs where necessary. As at closing of public comments, these are the emerging themes relevant for budget and tariffs sampled from received comments:

Table 1: The Summary of Public Comments

Categorization of comments or input	Common themes and dimensions of discussions	Final position noting the received comments
Comments on the general unaffordability of tariffs and pressure to the customers	The question is 'What informs the decision to increase electricity by 16% against NERSA's 12%?'	Service provision includes the bulk input purchased and the infrastructure to transport such input, including cost recovery. For local government, what constitute tariff determination is explicitly dealt by section 74 of the Municipal Systems Act. This should be combined with Tariff determination methods published by the regulators. In addition, as part of tariff reviews, municipalities are required to do cost of supply studies as a basis of increasing their tariffs. The two (bulk tariff determination and the section 74 process) tends to be the basis of determining whether a tariff is fair and prudent revenue requirements. These may not necessary be aligned with consumer preferences as previous regulation methods were based on the asset size as a regulatory base. There is a table inserted below to gives a comparative view of the city's tariffs versus other metropolitan municipalities.

	"From the draft tariff, there seems to be a double increase for pre-paid high electricity users- 18.84% plus R244.2 service charge and R237.3 capacity charge. Prepaid users should not be hit so hard as they pay for electricity upfront and with less administration by the municipality- limited risk and cost."	This issue has been reconsidered, and an alternative proposal is included proposed in the final electricity tariffs that rationalises the increases for prepaid customers. Under the section that deals with changes, section 5 of the final electricity tariff policy, the residential prepaid (low) to be exempt from paying both the service and capacity charges (R/month) to cushion our indigent customers in consideration of the current economic climate.
	"Consumers can't afford these increases. They are way above inflation and salary increase are not forthcoming." "Above inflation rates increase vis-à-vis little or no increases in salaries". "The proposed tariff increases are unreasonable, not in line with inflation and are pushing people into poverty."	These three dimensions are a general expression of the level of affordability of services. There are practical concessions that have been made to contain expenditure to the bare minimum but tariff levels in general are driven by the bulk purchase input (pass through costs), cost recovery, infrastructure backlogs, efficiency levels, modernisation of such businesses, and without additional revenue service delivery fails. The proposed CPI is generally within the parameters set by MFMA circular 128 of 8 March 2024. income statements published as part of the budget book illustrates the costs of running each vote.
	"Sewer charge based on property size rather than water consumption is unjustified. There is a direct correlation between water usage and sewage. I therefore disagree with the proposed change."	This is a policy issue that always emerges and has been legally tested several times including elements of arbitrariness. The current proposed tariff changes in the 2024/25 report to remove the definition of a flat in the tariff report and categorize all buildings as multi-dwellings with those below R700 000 receiving a subsidized tariff. As for the City of Johannesburg the sewer management is not necessarily cheaper than the primary water provision. The topology of the city, infrastructure required for sewage removal, pressure because of urbanisation, and the cost associated with sewer purification are equivalent to primary water provision. There are ongoing debates on what should be a fair methodology, should it be independent or volumetric. It should be noted that tariffs determination is guided by section 74 of the MSA and has an element of cross-subsidization between various classes of customers.

	"The tariffs for pre-paid power have now become over-complicated and it is time to hit the reset button and level the playing field. I think that the fixed charges for both pre-paid & post-paid should be the same."	The proposal is noted and is under consideration.
	Objection to the proposed increases and to the process the city uses to increase tariffs. Suggests that City does not implement any increases for the 2024-2025 financial year, implements increases directly linked to CPI and provides a detailed explanation as to why each increase is necessary with line-by-line itemisation before any decision is taken.	There are costs borne by the city in offering services. Various tariff reports and budget documents provide detailed motivation on a line-by-line basis. In addition to these, tariff increases are determined and concurred based on established regulatory methodologies.
Missing middle	"Even with pensioner discounts these tariff increases in electricity and services are totally unaffordable and unreasonable".	This is a new dimension of social package challenges designed along income levels, and not only affect the city. At this stage, the city can alleviate this challenge through approved relief measures which is a balancing act and success can only be achieved through diversifying and broadening the tax base. The city will continue to encourage those in need of relief measures such person to register under its extended social package to contain the size of billable costs..

Value proposition offered by the city	"Pre-paid users aid the City's cash flow by paying before they use and should therefore be considered by the city".	This comment is noted and encouraged. There is work underway to balance equal treatment of customers receiving the same service.
A request for the recognition of the impact of macro-economic environment	"Customers are struggling to make ends meet with the current rates, the high-rate increase proposals are unrealistic. It would seem the long-term strategy is to eliminate the tariff gap between pre and postpaid users who are not indigent. Why then is the city planning to disincentivise adoption of pre-paid?"	The tariff increases have been contained to the minimum practical increases considering the cost of sourcing bulk purchases required in service provision. This is made also recognising other principles necessary to sustain service provision such as cost reflectivity. The reports expand the extent of increases.
Desired efficiency measures to assist consumers	The increases in rates, electricity, water, and refuse removal in recent years are unaffordable and resulting in low collection levels. Instead of the massive increases, the city should rather focus on intensifying collections.	The proposal is noted, and measures are put in place to increase the collection levels and a fair contribution by all ratepayers to the city's revenue base. Various business plans include programmes designed to intensify revenue collections, fiscal leakages, infrastructure modernisation of infrastructure, lawlessness, enforcement of bylaws, informality and indigency. These read as a package are efforts to improve collections.
Service delivery issues	Input received from wards raise several service delivery issues such as road resurfacing, pipe replacement, upgrading of electricity networks, flood light, public safety, walkaways, dealing	These issues are part of various programmes implemented by departments and entities, and strengthening communication, functioning call centres, awareness programme, law enforcement,

A suggestion is made that for increases to be justified, there should be improved, consistent and sustained service delivery, so that the customer is not disadvantaged through the duplication of costs.	programme information and service delivery standards can bridge the gap.
Technical comments on the budget submissions	Input from JoburgCan that cover various areas was used to reference and check back the accuracy of the numbers provided, logic behind explanations provided, and alignment of various sources of numbers.	Most proposals overlap with general input from the public, and the outcomes of technical budget assessment undertaken below. Others relates to weaknesses in the governance model of the city on areas such as indigent services. There are areas that needs to be emphasised and therefore set the scene. In the design of the South African intergovernmental systems, a party in majority leads the formation of the Executive, and as a result the planning instruments are used as tools in achieving such objectives. This should be balanced with resources at the disposal of the city. The budget book interpreted correctly and read with accompanying annexures gives a holistic picture of the balancing act subject to available resources. This should be balanced with trade-offs that should be undertaken.

3.3. Comparison of the city tabled budget versus other metropolitan municipalities

Below is the table that gives a comparative view of the City's tariff versus other metropolitan municipalities. A comparison should be made mindful of different metropolitan municipality profiles, additional relief measures and geographical features.

Adjustments have been made on debt impairment levels per trading service to align to the final collection levels. Furthermore, corrections to the tabled budget were made within the required expenditure envelope, so as not to compromise the funded-ness and key ratios.

3.3.3. Key changes made on the final policies.

- Property rates – a 1% reduction on the published increase of 4,8% has been implemented resulting in a final 3,8% increase proposed for the 2024/25 FY.
- Electricity – changes are proposed under section 5 of the tariff policy including, exempting residential prepaid from paying both the service and capacity charges (R/month) indigent customers in consideration of the current economic climate.
- Sewer charges – the final policy removes the definition of a flat in the tariff report and categorize all buildings as multi-dwellings with those below R700 000 receiving a subsidized tariff.
- Delivery of final notices- the report that was presented to Council in March 2024 as part of the tabled budget and subsequently put for public participation process proposed a fee of about R190. A correction has been made to the report to make the fee R198 in line with the proposed 4,8% increase, following a section 79 meeting. The correct tariff is now R198, and part of the report appended for Council approval.

3.4. The benchmarking of the 2024/25 Medium Term Budget

On 3rd May 2024, the city led by the Group Chief Financial Officer, and the Chief Operations Officer and Senior Management of the City and its entities attended its intergovernmental benchmarking exercise where the budget is evaluated. The draft budget is assessed in terms of four pillars:

Table 5: Benchmarking assessment criteria

Credibility	Relevance	Sustainability	mSCOA implementation
• to determine if the budget is funded in terms of Section 18 of the MFMA • if the municipality adopted a budget process with evidence of sufficient political oversight and public participation revenue planning framework and	• to test if the budget is aligned to the reviewed IDP. • the extent to which national and provincial priorities are taken into consideration including the latest MFMA	• To determine whether the budget gives effect to long-term financial and operational sustainability of the municipality.	• To determine if the tabled budget was prepared directly on the financial system and whether the municipality is using the mSCOA segments

associated budget assumptions are realistic and indicative of multi-year budgeting. • Audit outcomes used to determine trends are as per audited AFS.	Circulars (126 and 128).		correctly.

The platform also provide interaction with other intergovernmental players such as the Development Bank of Southern Africa, Departments of Water Affairs, Human Settlements, Cooperative Governance, and provincial department responsible for local government. Discussions focus on technical evaluation of the IDP contents, budgeting assumptions, financial matrices and ratios, financial governance, sustainability of proposed programmes and the general stability of municipal administration. While the benchmarking exercise provided a technical comprehensive and comparative assessment of the city budget practise, it is important to note that the collection levels, hence debt impairment were also raised as challenge. The city was noted to be still fragile in several areas, however commended on measures it has adopted to improve the foundation. It was National Treasury's view that the proposed collection level of 87,7% on which the tabled budget was based on, is still overstated. This required a moderation of assumptions and reduction of the scope for spending. These changes have been implemented in the final version of the budget through adjusting collection levels of services, effecting corresponding changes on income statements. The accuracy of indigent information was raised as also an instrument to complement revenue enhancement, as it improves understanding of customer profile data. After a careful assessment, the budget was confirmed to be funded in terms of section 18 of the MFMA.

In summary based on three areas of assessment, the tabled 2024/25 budget was found to be:

- (1) to be credible meaning that the budget assumptions are credible, operating budget is multi-year, capital budget is multi-year, and the budget is funded as per Section 18 of the MFMA.
- (2) relevant, the budget was found to be aligned to City's SDBIP is alignment to the IDP, the National Development Plan, provincial and the city's objectives, it was noted that there was evidence of alignment to the operational and capital budget, and that the capital budget is adequate to fund infrastructure projects.
- (3) sustainability, it was noted that the key financial ratios, if the city follows the given technical advice, ought to improve over the MTEF. The city was commended for effecting necessary changes in the 2023/24 normal adjustment budget, because of which the base has been aligned to expected performance. It was emphasized that the city ought to strengthen its revenue collection capacity to improve the prospects of using other funding instruments such as borrowing, partnerships in infrastructure financing and alternative funding instruments. Areas of improvement included pairing an effort to the provision for debt impairment on the statement of financial performance and targeting greater than 90% collection rate. The city was reminded that it still not dealing properly with the levels of non-technical losses.

- (4) MSCOA implementation -while it was noted that the city has improved its compliance on data string submissions, it was noted as a concern that it has implemented only 2 out of 7 MSCOA segments. As a result, there is less integration in its information sets. The City was requested to renew its commitment in this area and implement the required modules as part of improving its quality of submissions.

As determined by the analytical methods used by the CYDNA Scientific Services Laboratory of Johannesburg Water (SOC) Ltd.

It is important that the sewer system is protected against acidic effluents and the charge for pH is therefore punitive. Similarly, metals are detrimental to the environment and the metal charge is also punitive. In addition, the discharge of excessive quantities of fat, oil and grease (FOG) into the sewer system causes blockages which is a public nuisance, a health risk and impedes the proper operation of the City's Waste Water Treatment Works. Hence the FOG charge is also punitive. Therefore, in cases where the Water Services By-laws are violated, pH will be assessed on the lowest and metals and FOG on peak values recorded during a six monthly period, irrespective of whether the industrial effluent volume discharged during that period is less than the value stipulated in clause 4.2 below.

- 6.2. In the case of any trade or industry in respect of which the average monthly volume of trade or industrial effluent generated during the previous half-year period was less than 100 kilolitres, the charge shall be R46.40 per kilolitre except where punitive charges are applied.
- 6.3. In respect of domestic effluent discharged from the premises of any trade or industry for which a charge was levied in terms of clause C (1) above, the charge shall be R46.40 per kilolitre.

In the absence of direct measurement, the domestic effluent will be estimated as follows:

- (a) 1,0 kilolitre per full-time staff member per month.
- (b) 4,0 kilolitre per resident per month {not included in (i) above}.
- (c) For staff canteens: 0,15 kl per meal served per month.
- (d) The working month will be based on a 5-day working week. In cases where the working week deviates from 5 days, a pro rata adjustment will be made).

- 6.4. Where the average monthly volume of trade or industrial effluent generated during the previous half-year period was more than 50 kilolitres, rebates under A above to be granted under conditions specified by the Council as follows—

- (a) 10% if discharge occurs at specified times only;
- (b) 15% if flow is balanced and discharged evenly over seven days at specified times only;
- (c) 20% if effluent contains If BOD/COD ratio is between 0.92 and 1, which is deemed beneficial to the Council's treatment processes; and
- (d) 50% maximum if (c) occurs with (a) and (b).

- 6.5. For the disposal of organic industrial wastes delivered by tanker to the wastewater treatment works: R27.26 per kilogram of COD.

- 6.6. The sample must be analysed six - monthly by an independent accredited laboratory for the customer to secure a non- effluent rebate under 6.4(c) above to be granted under conditions specified by the Council.

EMBEDDED GENERATOR MINIMUM CONDITIONS

- 1.1 In terms of the provision of the Electricity Regulation Act, (Act 4 of 2006) (ERA) generation of electricity is a licensed activity, unless exempted by the Minister of Energy.
- 1.2 This tariff will only apply to customers that are net consumers at City Power and who have invested in embedded generation capacity, are grid-tied (and comply with all the regulations regarding grid connection).
- 1.3 That the embedded generator is required to register with City Power and the equipment used must comply with the technical standards required by City Power.
- 1.4 All Large Power Users and Business Customers who would be willing to invest in embedded generation with the purpose of supplementing their electricity supply from City Power will have to be on a conventional tariff structure. If they are currently on a prepaid structure, they will be required to migrate to a conventional tariff structure.
- 1.5 All residential customers who would be willing to invest in embedded generation with the purpose of supplementing their electricity supply from City Power, will have to be on a time-of-use conventional tariff structure. If they are currently on a prepaid structure, they will be required to migrate to the time-of-use conventional tariff structure.
- 1.6 Embedded generators that are at any time capable of feeding energy back into the grid will require meters with bidirectional metering capability.
- 1.7 All parties that would invest in generating electricity capacity and who would elect to only feed into the grid (and never draw from the grid) will be treated as an additional supplier under a negotiated power purchase agreement.
- 1.8 The tariff is only applicable to maximum generation capacity of 1MW.

Proposed percentage increases for FY24/25 to respective electricity tariffs are as follows:

EMBEDDED GENERATOR MINIMUM CONDITIONS

- In terms of the provision of the Electricity Regulation Act, (Act 4 of 2006) (ERA) generation of electricity is a licensed activity, unless exempted by the Minister of Energy. The approved tariffs are therefore subjected to the provisions of the ERA, and are otherwise interim/pilot.
- This tariff will only apply to customers that are net consumers at City Power and who have invested in embedded generation capacity, are grid-tied (and comply with all the regulations regarding grid connection).
- That the embedded generator is required to register with City Power and the equipment used must comply with the technical standards required by City Power.
- All Large Power Users and Business customers who would be willing to invest in embedded generation with the purpose of supplementing their electricity supply from City Power will have to be on a conventional tariff structure. If they are currently on a prepaid structure, they will be required to migrate to a conventional tariff structure.
- All residential customers who would be willing to invest in embedded generation with the purpose of supplementing their electricity supply from City Power, will have to be on a time-of-use conventional tariff structure. If they are currently on a prepaid structure, they will be required to migrate to the time-of-use conventional tariff structure.
- Embedded generators that are at any time capable of feeding energy back into the grid will require meters with bidirectional metering capability.
